The Hon. Sri R. VENKATARAMAN : (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) After discussion with the President and Directors of the Society and representatives of some of the political parties on 4th February 1960, the Assistant Collector, Karur, effected a compromise to the effect that the society might consider the readmission of the two expelled members, if they expressed regret in writing for their misconduct. In pursuance of this, the two expelled members gave a petition to the Assistant Collector promising to conduct themselves better and to abide by the rules and regulations of the society. The Board of Directors of the society recommended the petition for the
